RED HOT & BLUE RESTAURANTS, INC. SIGNS NEW FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

Winston-Salem, North Carolina - Barbeque, Blues, and Southern Hospitality have a new home in Herndon Va. The opening of the newest RED HOT & BLUE is the third for franchisee Smoking Fairways, LLC. Barry Thompson is excited to be expanding his Red Hot and Blue barbeque chain, the number one BBQ brand in the DC area.

Red Hot & Blue in Herndon is scheduled to open the week of January 26th. The chain was named the best barbeque in the Washington Post's Reader Poll, the Washingtonian magazine, and a major consumer magazine. The chain was also selected as one of Seven Quick Picks for the "Good Food at a Good Price" in a national consumer magazine.

Red Hot & Blue was purchased in 2006 by Dancing Pigs, LLC. The corporate headquarters were moved to Winston-Salem, North Carolina in 2007. The management team is headed by investors John Walker ceo, and Randy McCann, president – both Southerners. Both Barbeque and blues fans as well.
